Huge thanks to everyone at Founders Inc for giving us the opportunity to join their accelerator. If you're not familiar with it, Founders Inc is an accelerator where startup teams build their companies side by side, working intensely day and night. It's based at Fort Mason in San Francisco, and the energy there is both serious and genuinely fun. I also learned a lot from the hardware founders and from speakers like Jake from Railway. It's a special place, and I'm very grateful I got to spend time there.
